Law Department,
Trivandrum.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY THE S. G. P. AT THE GOVERNMENT CENTRAL PRESS, TRIVANDRUM, 1955.

Travancore-Cochin such other authority as they may specify in the notification to be the licensing authority for the purposes of this Act.

5. Restrictions on powers of licensing authority. (1) The licensing authority shall not grant a license under this Act, unless it is satisfied that—

(a) the rules made under the Act have been complied with; and

(b) adequate precautions have been taken in the place in respect of which the license is to be given to provide for the safety of persons attending exhibitions therein.

(2) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section and to the control of the Government, the licensing authority may grant licenses under this Act to such persons as that authority thinks fit and on such terms and conditions and subject to such restrictions as it may determine.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the decision of a licensing authority refusing to grant a license under this Act may, within such time as may be prescribed, appeal to the Government or to such officer as the Government may specify in this behalf, and the Government or the officer, as the case may be, may make such order in the case as they or he thinks fit.

(4) The Government may, from time to time, issue directions to licensees generally or to any licensee in particular for the purpose of regulating the exhibition of any film or class of films, so that scientific films, films intended for educational purposes, films dealing with news and current events, documentary films or indigenous films secure an adequate opportunity of being exhibited, and where any such directions have been issued those directions shall be deemed to be additional conditions and restrictions subject to which the license has been granted.

6. Power of Government or District Magistrate to suspend exhibition of films in certain cases. (1) The Government, in respect of the whole State of Travancore-Cochin or any part thereof, and the District Magistrate in respect of the District within his jurisdiction may, if they are or he is of opinion that any film, which is being publicly exhibited, is likely to cause a breach of the peace, by order, suspend the exhibition of the film, and thereafter such film shall not be exhibited or permitted to be exhibited in the State, part or District, as the case may be, during the period in which the order of suspension is in force.

(2) When an order under sub-section (1) has been issued by the District Magistrate, a copy thereof, together with a statement of the reasons therefor, shall forthwith be forwarded by him to the Government and the Government may either confirm or discharge the order.

(3) An order made under this section shall remain in force for a period of two months from the date thereof but the Government may, if they are of opinion that the order should continue in force, direct that the period of suspension shall be extended by such further period as they think fit.

7. Penalties for contravention of the Act and rules made thereunder. (1) If the owner or person in charge of a cinematograph uses the same or allows it to be used, or if the owner or occupier of any place permits that place to be used in contravention of the provisions of this Act or of the rules made thereunder or of the conditions and restrictions upon or subject to which any license has been granted under this Act, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, and, in the case of a continuing offence, with a further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for each day during which the offence continues.

(2) (a) If any person exhibits or permits to be exhibited any film which has been suspended under sub-section (1) of Section 6, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, and, in the case of a continuing offence, with a further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for each day during which the offence continues.

(b) If any person is convicted of an offence punishable under clause (a) committed by him in respect of any film, the convicting court may further direct that the film shall be forfeited to the Government.

8. Power to revoke license. Where the holder of a license has been convicted of an offence under Section 7 of the Cinematograph Act, 1952 (Central Act XXXVII of 1952) or under Section 7 of this Act, the license may be revoked by the licensing authority.

9. Power to revise proceedings under the Act. The Government may call for and examine the record of any proceeding taken under this Act, call for any report in connection therewith, make or cause to be made any further enquiry and may pass such order in reference thereto as they think fit:

Provided that no order shall be passed under this section without notice to the party who may be affected by the order.

10. Power to make rules. (1) The Government may, by notification in the Gazette, make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, rules made under this Act may provide for—

(a) the terms, conditions and restrictions, if any, subject to which licenses may be granted under this Act;
